

ifarchitects (ilaria borocci, fabio colonnese)

CASA CLAN

2010

Prati, Rome

Apartment renovation

Built

Like a city in miniature, this articulated apartment responds to the manifold requires of a couple of professionals and their three children, whose figures inspired the shape of the cubic dining room. Each child has his own room and the living-room has been appositely articulated in three separate but contiguous zones in order to house parallel activities, such as conversation, watching TV, listening to music or using a PC.